

LEONARDO M. RAPADAS
Attorney General

PHILLIP J. TYDINGCO
Chief Deputy Attorney General

OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

---

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 08, 2014- Tamuning, Guam-Kendall Norris McKinney was sentenced to 20 years imprisonment today by Judge Anita Sukola after being convicted of burglary as a second degree felony, theft of property as a third degree felony as a lesser charge and one count of theft by receiving as a second degree felony back in December.

Last July, McKinney entered a home known to him and stole a television and laptop. Approximately a month later, he returned to the same home and stole a Chevy Trailblazer which was found stripped at the Okkudo Pipeline about two weeks later.

Nineteen witnesses took the stand during this trial, some of who saw McKinney driving the Trailblazer and attempting to sell its rims. The laptop and television were never recovered.

“There were many obstacles in this case; but the jury was able to see that this man was responsible for these crimes and for the betrayal he inflicted on his victims, who once took him in and cared for him. I’d like to thank the victims for their courage and support,” said Assistant Attorney General Christine Tenorio.

“Residents should be able to sleep a little better knowing this repeat offender will serve a long and lengthy sentence imprisoned at the Department of Corrections,” said Attorney General Leonardo M. Rapadas.

###