FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 5, 2017
Tamuning, GU

The OAG Commemorates National Crime Victims' Rights Week, April 2-8

The Office of the Attorney General of Guam (OAG), in commemoration of National Crime Victims' Rights Week (NCVRW), April 2-8, 2017, is hosting the 1st Annual Guam Crime Victims' Rights Fair to raise awareness about crime victims' issues, rights, and community resources available. This year's theme, "Strength. Resilience. Justice." emphasizes the importance of multidisciplinary responses and building the capacity of individuals, service providers, and communities to respond to crime and support the ongoing healing of victims and survivors.

The OAG will host this year's event alongside our community partners – organizations committed to serving crime victims, government entities, and the community. As a community, we remain steadfast to serving victims of crime, enhancing efforts to meet their needs, and empowering them as they pursue justice and healing.

The event—the 1st Annual Guam Crime Victims' Rights Week Fair—will be held on Saturday, April 8, 2017, at the Ricardo J. Bordallo Governor's Complex in Adelup from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Service providers include, but are not limited to, Erica's House, Victim Advocates Reaching Out, Guam Legal Services Corporation, Healing Hearts, Catholic Social Services, Guam Police Department, the Guam Coalition and many others. The public is encouraged to attend.

For more information, contact Pauline I. Untalan, Special Assistant to the Attorney General, at 475-3324 extension 5030.
