Hon. Leevin Taitano Camacho

Attorney General of Guam

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Attorney General Camacho Connects with Colleagues at NAAG Conference

March 08, 2019, Tamuning, Guam- Attorney General Leevin Taitano Camacho is away at the National Association of Attorneys General (NAAG) 2019 Winter Conference in Washington, D.C., with other Attorneys General from across the nation.

The agenda included an update on the Master Settlement Agreement (MSA), a multi-state agreement that settled litigation against tobacco companies for the cost of healthcare and other damages that resulted from cigarette smoking. Guam receives approximately $2 million annually from the MSA. Sessions on the impact of e-cigarettes on underage tobacco use, the effectiveness of specialty courts for drug-related offenses, and freedom of speech through the use of social media were also held.

AG Camacho and his colleagues were also invited to the White House to hear remarks from President Trump and members of his cabinet on law enforcement policy and criminal justice reform, the opioid crisis and human trafficking.

No local funds were used for airfare or lodging. The Office of the Attorney General incurred a $795 registration fee for the conference, as well as a per diem pay-out of $772.50.
