Hon. Leevin Taitano Camacho

Attorney General of Guam

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Isezaki Convicted of Assaulting Agat Couple

February 05, 2019, Tamuning, Guam-Today, Jeremiah Isezaki was convicted of assaulting a married couple outside of their residence in Agat last October.

The jury found Isezaki guilty of Assault as a Misdemeanor.

He faces up to 1 year of imprisonment at Department of Corrections for this conviction.

“It takes the courage of victims to come forward and testify in trial in order for justice to be reached,” said Prosecuting Attorney Tom Neuman. Assistant Attorney General Brendlynn Joseph co-chaired this trial.
