Hon. Leevin Taitano Camacho

Attorney General of Guam

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Sexual Predator Guilty of All Charges

February 18, 2019, Tamuning, Guam- Johnny Lujan Aguon was found guilty today of all charges against him. He faces a mandatory minimum of 15 years imprisoned at the Department of Corrections for First Degree Criminal Sexual Conduct as First Degree Felony, Attempted First Degree Criminal Sexual Conduct as First Degree Felony, Second Degree Criminal Sexual Conduct as a First Degree Felony, and Harassment as a Petty Misdemeanor. The maximum jail time Aguon faces is life in prison.

The victim, who was five years-old when the abuse began, endured many years of sexual abuse.

“It is not easy for a child to come forward and disclose the years of sexual abuse they have suffered, especially when adults can be skeptical of the claims. The victim exemplified courage when she stood up in front of 12 strangers to tell her story. She is the real hero. I am thankful for the verdict, as the defendant will now be incapacitated from committing further sexual abuse,” said Prosecuting Attorney Christine Tenorio.

Sentencing is scheduled for June 13, 2019.
