Hon. Leevin Taitano Camacho

Attorney General of Guam

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mallo Sally Pleads Guilty to Manslaughter

March 12, 2019, Tamuning, Guam- Mallo Mangof Sally pled guilty today to Manslaughter and Robbery, both as a First Degree Felonies. Under the terms of the agreement, he will be sentenced to 15 years in prison.

In February 2017, Gilbert Alvarez Jr. offered a ride to Sally and his co-defendant. Alvarez was later found unconscious in the Mangilao area. Sally's co-defendant was found guilty of murder and manslaughter at trial last November.

"Mr. Alvarez, the victim in this case, agreed to give the Defendants a ride home and lost his life as a result. This resolution we hope will help ease the pain of the victims' family as well as bring some closure to the lives of the people that suffered the loss of their loved one. We, in the criminal justice system, aim to give the community a sense of security and the results of the case gets us closer to that goal," said Assistant Attorney General (AAG) Sean Brown. AAG Jeremiah Luther and Sean Brown prosecuted the co-defendant.
