Castro Sentenced to Five Years Imprisonment

Hagatna, Guam- Late this afternoon, Judge Lamorena sentenced Alex Castro to five years' incarceration with two years suspended after he was convicted last month of one count of third degree aggravated, one count of assault as a misdemeanor and reckless conduct as a misdemeanor after he attacked a navy sailor back in 2010.

"We are happy with the sentence imposed by the Judge," said Attorney General Leonardo M. Rapadas. "This sends a strong message to the community that violence outside of the ring will not be tolerated."
